Online Resources

General community gardening skills: The GreenThumb website provides online resources and a variety of workshops on skills ranging from carpentry to garden design.

https://www.nycgovparks.org/greenthumb/resources

Taking care of tree beds: The Street Tree Care Captain webinar provides an introduction of tree bed care.

https://www.nycgovparks.org/reg/advanced-stewardship

Lady Bird Johnson Center, North Carolina Extension Gardener, The Plant Native, bplant.org,

Youtube channel: GrowitBuildit, amazing in-depth videos about specific native plants, soil quality/soil testing, garden design, installation and maintenance tips, and more

Youtube channel: Crime Pays but Botany Doesn’t

Reddit: /r/NativePlantGardening, r/invasivespecies

The Xerces Society has incredible, detailed resources on pollinator conservation from site establishment, planting, plant selection, assessment, and so on.

- New York Native Planting Guide
- GrowNYC Resilient Gardens Guide

You can also join the NYC Pollinator Working Group mailing list.

---

Revision #5
Created 2026-01-20 03:07:06 UTC by surya
Updated 2026-05-16 03:30:07 UTC by surya